Dear Mr. Peterson:

I am in receipt of your Public Records Request emailed to this department today, December 31, 2018, requesting "A log of public records requests submitted to the Department Commerce, Community and Economic Development that lists the date of request, the requester's name, the requester's organizational affiliation, a description of the request and the date the request was filled for the period from 2004 to the present."

Requests of this nature are responded to in accordance with the Alaska Public Records Act [APRA] (AS 40.25.100 et seq.) and the regulations promulgated to enforce the Act (2 AAC 96.100 et seq.).

Pursuant to your request, please find the attached public records log from the current date back to October 1, 2012. There is no charge for this log.

Older records responsive to your request are no longer available.

Therefore, your request for those records is denied in accordance with 2 AAC 96.335(a)(1) and AS 40.25.120(a)(4).

The Commissioner of our department has delegated her authority to me to respond to requests such as yours. You may immediately appeal this decision by seeking injunctive relief from the Alaska Superior Court. Additionally, you may ask the Commissioner for reconsideration. Such a request does not require the posting of an appeal bond.

For more on this process, please review the attached regulations, particularly 2 AAC 96.340. If you choose not to pursue injunctive relief in the Alaska Superior Court, your rights before this department, including requesting reconsideration, will not be adversely affected.

Please contact me if you have any questions.

Best regards,
